March 11, 2026

*All price's mentioned in report are based on previous day closing bases.

NIFTY – 24,261.60 (Daily Chart)

• In Tuesday's trading session, the Nifty opened on a positive note but failed to carry its bullish momentum, as it hovered within the range of 24,080–24,300, which helped the index close on a positive note.

• On a daily scale, the index has formed a flattish candle with a long wick at the bottom, resembling a Dragonfly Doji candlestick pattern. The index continues to maintain its bearish structure as it is forming a lower high–lower low formation and is trading below the 20 DEMA level.

• For Wednesday's trading session, 24,195 will act as the initial support level, while on the higher end, 24,300 will act as the initial resistance level.

BANK NIFTY – 56,950.80 (Daily Chart)

- In Tuesday's trading session, the banking index opened on a positive note and gradually moved in the north direction, which helped the index close on a positive note.

- On a daily scale, the index has formed a bullish candle and is in the process of covering the gap that was created on 9th March. However, the index continues to hold its bearish structure as it is forming a lower low–lower high formation and remains below the 20 DEMA level.

- For Wednesday's trading session, 56,665 will act as the initial support level, while on the higher end, 57,105 will act as the initial resistance level.

- The Indian government is exploring new insurance schemes to aid exporters impacted by the West Asia crisis. An inter-ministerial group is actively monitoring the situation and consulting with the Export Credit Guarantee Corporation. Shipping lines are advised against opportunistic pricing. Guidelines are being issued for returning export cargo.
- India anticipates a record wheat harvest of 120.21 million tonnes in the 2025-26 crop year. This marks a significant increase from the previous year. Overall rabi crop production is also projected to rise. Pulses output is expected to grow substantially, helping to bridge the demand-supply gap. Oilseeds and other cereals also show positive production forecasts.
- With API exports hitting an impressive Rs 41,500 crore last fiscal year, India has outperformed its imports of Rs 39,215 crore. The government is pushing for a self-reliant economy via the Production Linked Incentive scheme, strategically aimed at cutting down import connections, notably with China.
