June 13, 2025

*All price's mentioned in report are based on previous day closing bases.

NIFTY – 24,888.20 (Daily Chart)

- In Thursday's trading session, the Nifty opened on a negative note and continued to decline throughout the day, ending with a negative close.

- On the daily chart, the index formed a strong bearish candle but managed to close right at the 20 DEMA support level. The RSI is trending downward, indicating weakening momentum. If the index fails to hold above the 20 DEMA, it may come under further pressure and potentially move toward the next key support at 24,490.

- For Friday's session, 24,840 will serve as the initial support level, while 25,080 will act as the initial resistance.

BANK NIFTY – 56,082.55 (Daily Chart)

- In Thursday's trading session, the banking index opened on a negative note and continued to drift lower throughout the day, ending with a negative close.
- On the daily chart, the index formed a strong bearish candle and is gradually approaching the 20 DEMA support level. Holding above this level will be crucial to maintain bullish sentiment. Meanwhile, the RSI is trending downward, indicating growing weakness in the index.
- For Friday's session, 55,970 will serve as the initial support level, while 56,315 will act as the initial resistance.

- India's retail inflation dropped to a 75-month low of 2.8% year-on-year in May, driven by a steep fall in food prices, data released on Thursday showed. Economists expect it to ease further in June. The Consumer Price Index (CPI)-based inflation stood at 3.2% in April and 4.8% in May last year. Food inflation, accounting for a significant weight in the inflation basket, fell to a 43-month low of 0.99% in May.
- India is open to ease the quality control order (QCQ) framework for "trusted partners", producing good quality products, commerce and industry minister Piyush Goyal has said. The minister, on a four-day visit to Switzerland and Sweden, said discussions on 90% of content were complete on India-EU FTA, with services and rules of origin negotiations slated to start from Monday. However, he said, key issue to be addressed is non-tariff barriers to make it easy to do business.
